Dear Sir/Madam

Re: Your invoice/reminder dated

With reference to your letter dated, in which you request payment of the sum of EUR, we would respond as follows.

On, in error we signed your communication regarding a "Fair Guide", since you had given rise to the inaccurate impression that this entry was free of charge / an update for the official exhibitors' index of the said trade fair. Since the error was caused by you and was material in leading to conclusion of the contract, we contest the contract – in so far as a contract indeed even came into being, which we would also dispute – on the basis of error, in particular pursuant to Austrian law (Section 871 ABGB).

For the sake of good order, we would also point out that the clause according to which the contract is concluded for three years / automatically extended is also invalid in particular pursuant to Austrian law (Section 864a ABGB). This is most certainly an unexpected clause which would not be anticipated according to the external appearance of the document.

Finally, we have been informed that, besides numerous other actions and court orders against you, the Austrian Schutzverband gegen unlauteren Wettbewerb is conducting a comprehensive set of proceedings against your company with the aim of obtaining an injunction preventing you from despatching these misleading communications and deriving the benefits therefrom, i.e. a prohibition on collection of the amounts concerned.

We do not therefore see any reason to settle the amount requested by you.

Yours faithfully
